

“Mr. Speaker, Mr. Vice President, Members of Congress, the First Lady of the United States, and my fellow Americans:

LOCK HER UP! LOCK HER UP!

Less than one year has passed since I first stood at this podium, in this very very majestic chamber, to speak on behalf of the American People – and to address their tremendous concerns, their hopes, and their dreams. That night, our new beautiful , very beautiful Administration had already taken swift action. A new tide of optimism was already sweeping across our land.

Each day since, we have gone forward with a clear vision and a righteous mission – to make America great again for all Americans. And to build a wall. A wall that Mexico is going to pay for. Over the last year, we have made incredible progress and achieved extra extraordinary success. We have faced challenges we expected, and others we could never have imagined. We have shared in the heights of victory and the pains of hardship. We endured floods and fires and storms and grabbed pussies. But through it all, we have seen the beauty of America’s soul, and the steel in America’s spine. Each test has forged new American heroes to remind us who we are, and show us what we can be.

Tonight, I want to talk about what kind of future we are going to have, and what kind of Nation we are going to be. WALL! All of us, together, as one team, one people, and one American family. We all share the same home, the same heart, the same destiny, and the same great American flag. Together, we are rediscovering the American way.

In America, we know that faith and family, not government and bureaucracy, are the center of the American life. Our motto is "in God we trust."

And we celebrate WHAT A NICE BUTT MY DAUGHTER HAS RIGHT? our police, our military, and our amazing veterans as heroes who deserve our total and unwavering support.

What I won't do is take in two hundred thousand Syrians who could be ISIS... I have been watching this migration. And I see the people. I mean, they're men. They're mostly men, and they're strong men. These are physically young, strong men. They look like prime-time soldiers. Now it's probably not true, but where are the women?... So, you ask two things. Number one, why aren't they fighting for their country? And number two, I don't want these people coming over here.

That is what our country has always been about. That is what Americans have always stood for, always strived for, and always done. Atop the dome of this Capitol stands the Statue of Freedom. She stands tall and dignified among the monuments to our ancestors who fought and lived and died to protect her.

Monuments to Washington and Jefferson - to Lincoln and King. Memorials to the heroes of Yorktown and Saratoga - to DRUG CARTELS FROM MEXICO - to young Americans who shed their blood on the shores of Normandy, and the fields beyond. And others, they're bringing drugs. They're bringing crime. They're rapists, who went down in the waters of the Pacific and the skies over Asia. China, by the way. And freedom stands tall over one more monument: this one. This Capitol. This living monument to the American people.

A people PUTIN IS SO IMPRESSED BY ME whose heroes live not only in the past, but all around us - defending hope, pride, and the American way. They work in every trade. They sacrifice to raise a family. They care for our children at home. They defend our flag abroad. They are strong moms and brave kids. They are firefighters, police officers, border agents, medics, and Marines.

But above all else, they are Americans. And this Capitol, this city, and this Nation, belong to them. Our task is to respect them, to listen to them, to serve them, to protect them, and to always be worthy of them. Americans fill the world with art and music and cheeseburgers so great! They push the bounds of science and discovery. And they forever remind us of what we should never forget: The people dreamed this country. The people built this country. And it is the people who are making America great again. As long as we are proud of who we are, and what we are fighting for, there is nothing we cannot Achieve. As long as we have confidence in our values, faith in our citizens, and trust in our God, we will not fail. Our families will thrive. Our people will prosper, EXCEPT FOR CROOKED HILLARY!

And our Nation will forever be safe and strong and proud and mighty and free. EXCEPT FOR

CROOKED HILLARY!

Thank you, and God bless America.
